Data Protection

Under the Data Protection Act, Robert Moutrey ('Robert') has a legal duty to protect any personal information he collects from you. Robert does not capture or store any personal information about individuals who access this website, except where they voluntarily choose to give us their personal details via email, or by using an electronic form, or enquiring about any of our services. In these circumstances, any personal information you supply will only be used to provide the information or service you have requested. Personal information is not disclosed to third parties unless this is indicated on the webpage and/or relevant form at the point of collecting information from you, or as required by law. Please note unless encrypted, email messages sent via the internet may not be secure and could be intercepted and read by someone else. Please bear this in mind when deciding whether to include personal or sensitive information in any email messages you intend to send to Robert Moutrey.

Statistical data

Robertmoutrey.com automatically collects statistical data about usage patterns on this website. This information is not used to identify any individual. It is only collected to provide us with an understanding of the areas of interest on our site and kept only for as long as required for this purpose.

Use of cookies

A cookie is a small file which asks permission to be placed on your computer's hard drive. Once you agree, the file is added and the cookie helps analyse web traffic or lets you know when you visit a particular site. Cookies allow web applications to respond to you as an individual. The web application can tailor its operations to your needs, likes and dislikes by gathering and remembering information about your preferences.

Robertmoutrey.com use's traffic log cookies to identify which pages are being used. This helps Robert analyse data about web page traffic and improve his website in order to tailor it to customer needs. Robert only uses this information for statistical analysis purposes and then the data is removed from the system. Overall, cookies help Robert provide you with a better website, by enabling him to monitor which pages you find useful and which you do not. A cookie in no way gives Robert access to your computer or any information about you, other than the data you choose to share with him.

You can choose to accept or decline cookies. Most web browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can usually modify your browser setting to decline cookies if you prefer. This may prevent you from taking full advantage of the website.

The website uses Google Analytics to collect statistical data – please visit Google Analytics Terms Of Service for full details.

Changes to this privacy policy

If this privacy policy changes in any way, Robert will place an updated version on this page.
